ROCK-2-ROCK OCEAN CLASSIC

The inaugural Rock-2-Rock Ocean Classic is set to be the finest open water swim at Dicky Beach on the Sunshine Coast of Queensland.

Dicky Beach is renowned for its clean surf breaks, long sandy beach and the wreck of the SS Dicky. Entrants should prepare themselves for the ultimate challenge.

The swimmers will enter the pristine water just south of the infamous wreck of the S.S. Dicky. Entrants will then head north to the rocks off Ann Street before they track back to Neil Street rocks. Finally, the entrants will return to the start line to conclude this testing race.

Entrants are eligible to either enter the 1km or 2km open swim competition.

Average water temperature for this time of year is 23°C. No wetsuits or seal suits are permitted for the event.
